

In My World activity.

Cut out the pictures. Have the students color and cut out the pictures and draw a picture or write about what is in their world, town, house and room on the back of the printed picture, then staple them all together with the world on top and the room on the bottom. Choose the world that matches where you live.

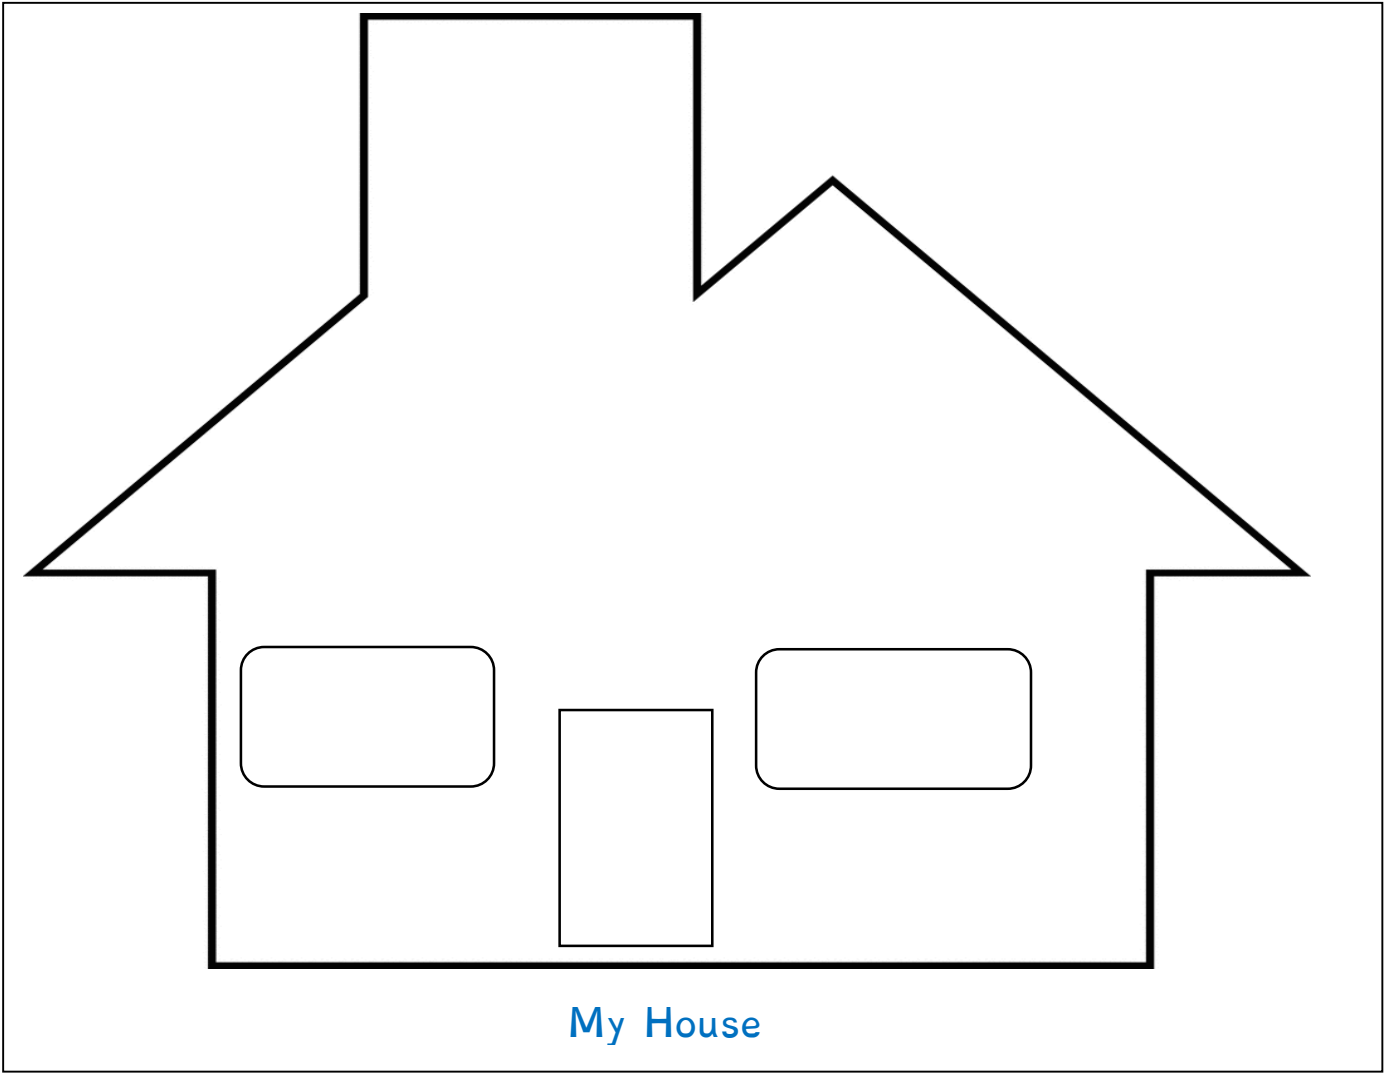

My World

My Town

My House

My Room

